PER CURIAM:

Lancer Insurance Company ("Lancer") brought this declaratory judgment action against VIP Limousine Service, Ltd.; Glen M. Lee d/b/a VIP Limousine, Ltd.; and David and Mary Snyder ("the Snyders") as personal representatives of the estate of their deceased son Michael C. Snyder ("Michael"). In its action, Lancer sought a determination that it was not required to indemnify Lee Crawford for liability arising out of an accident that occurred when a vehicle Crawford was driving struck and killed Michael. The Snyders filed a counterclaim seeking to collect on a state-court judgment they had previously obtained against Crawford based on his negligence in causing the accident. The district court granted summary judgment against the Snyders and in favor of Lancer and the other parties. See Lancer Ins. Co. v. VIP Limousine Serv., Ltd., No. 3:11-CV-111, 2013 WL 937735 (N.D. W. Va. Mar. 11, 2013).

The Snyders now appeal. We have reviewed the record and have found no error. Accordingly, we affirm on the reasoning of the district court. See id. We dispense with oral argument because the facts and legal contentions are adequately presented in the materials before this court and argument would not aid the decisional process.
